The terms are detailed below:

This Contract contains the principal terms and conditions of your employment and incorporates your written particulars of employment. It supersedes and replaces any previous agreement (whether written or oral) or employment particulars relating to your employment by Losode.

The Employee Handbook, which sets out Losode's policies and procedures will be shared with you. It is important that you carefully read it and any new policies and procedures that may be added from time to time.

The Employee Handbook is not intended to be contractually binding unless specifically stated. However, you must abide by the policies, rules, and procedures set out in it whether or not they are stated to be contractually binding. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action or your dismissal.

EMPLOYER

- You will be employed by Losode Nigeria Ltd. with address at 253 Muri Okunola, Victoria Island, Lagos, Nigeria herein duly authorised hereto (hereinafter referred to as the “EMPLOYER”).

COMMENCEMENT DATE

- Your employment with Losode will begin on 8th September 2025. This date will also be the commencement date of your period of continuous employment with Losode and no prior employment shall count towards your continuous employment.

JOB TITLE AND ROLE

- Your job title: Back-end Developer (Mid-Level)
1. As a Back-end Developer at Losode, you will design, build, and maintain robust backend systems and RESTful APIs using PHP and Laravel, ensuring clean architecture and modular code, stay current with backend development trends, tools, and technologies, and proactively contribute ideas for system enhancements and process improvements.

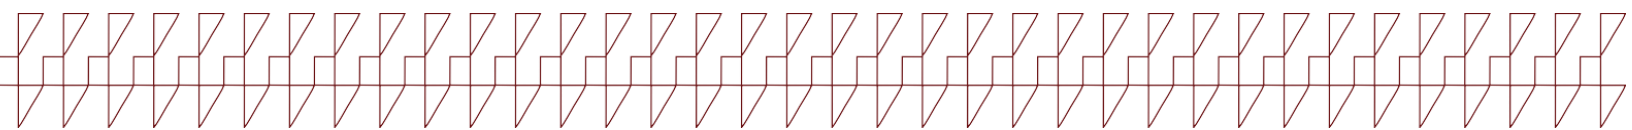

2. Collaborate with front-end developers to integrate user-facing elements with server-side logic, ensuring seamless functionality and user experience, develop scalable solutions to support platform growth, optimizing system performance and resource efficiency across services
3. Implement authentication, authorization, and security best practices to safeguard sensitive data and application resources, adhering to industry standards, optimize database queries, manage data models, and ensure high availability, data integrity, and fast response times across the platform
4. Troubleshoot and resolve backend issues including bugs, performance bottlenecks, and security vulnerabilities in a timely and effective manner, conduct unit testing, participate in peer code reviews, and ensure adherence to coding standards and best practices.
5. Stay current with backend development trends, tools, and technologies, and proactively contribute ideas for system enhancements and process improvements, work closely with DevOps engineers to manage application infrastructure, automate deployments, and monitor system health and uptime
6. Furthermore, you will play an active role in enhancing website performance, and usability to strengthen Losode's digital presence in the fashion and eCommerce industry. You will stay up to date with the latest Back-end technologies, contribute ideas for improvement, and help implement best practices to ensure a smooth and engaging user experience. As part of the development team, you will support product enhancements and new feature implementations to keep Losode's platform innovative and competitive.
7. Your job title and job description do not limit your duties, which may include such duties that would reasonably be expected to fall within this job title together with such other duties, consistent with your status, as may reasonably be assigned to you from time to time.
8. Your primary assignment is defined by your employment; however, you may also be assigned to other teams and roles as required, both within and outside your department. Collaboration with colleagues across Losode to achieve our shared objectives is expected.
9. You will be required to devote your full time and attention during normal working hours to the performance of your duties and to always act in the best interests of Losode. During your employment, you will not work with any other paid employment, paid work, or paid projects, without first obtaining the written consent of the Executive in Charge of your function. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action or your dismissal.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

10. The first three months of your employment will be probationary. During the probationary period, your employment may be terminated on two weeks' written notice by Losode or two weeks' written notice by you.
11. Towards the end of your probationary period, if your performance is deemed satisfactory, you will be asked to complete a performance appraisal. This appraisal will subsequently be discussed and agreed upon with your line manager before you receive written notification of the successful completion of your probationary period. If your performance does not meet the necessary standard, your probationary period may be extended, or your employment may be terminated. Your probationary period will continue until you are formally notified in writing of its satisfactory completion.

PLACE OF WORK

12. Losode requires you to execute your duties remotely. Losode reserves the right to require you to work elsewhere, this may mean a different city or country to your home base either temporarily or permanently where reasonably necessary for its business.

SALARY

13. You will be paid an annual gross salary of N3,000,000.00 (Three Million Niara Only). This will be monthly in arrears starting from the sixth week of your employment with Losode, two weeks in lieu. The Losode payment cycle runs from the 16th to the 15th of every month, it is your responsibility to confirm number of days worked with your line manager prior to the end of the payment cycle.
14. At the end of your employment, Losode will pay all outstanding fees in line with your contract and upon a satisfactory handover. Your monthly salary will be paid into your nominated bank account on the last day of each month.

BENEFITS

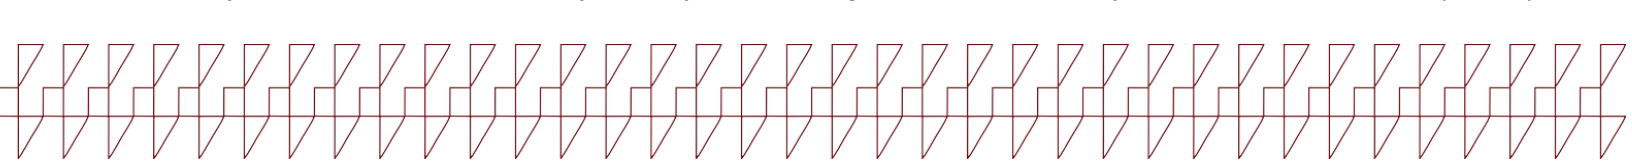

15. In your employment with Losode, you are entitled to discretionary benefits:
 - An annual discretionary bonus equal to one month's salary, payable at the end of the calendar year. This bonus will only be paid after the completion of twelve (12) months of continuous service with Losode and where the business is profitable with objectives and laid-out targets met.
16. Losode will deduct all obligatory deductions as authorised by statute before the payment of your monthly salary, and this will be advised to you in advance of any deductions. Your pay may be subject to the contribution as required by the Pension Reform Act 2018.
17. Losode is entitled to deduct any sums owed by you to the business from your salary or any other payment due to you. Such sums include, without limitation, repayment of any loans or advances made to you by Losode, repayment of any excess holiday or sick pay, overpayment of salary or other benefits received by you from Losode, any reimbursement of training costs and the cost of any damage to or loss of Losode's property caused by you.
18. Your salary will be reviewed by Losode on an annual basis. Reviews normally take place in the first quarter of each calendar year. You should note that there is no obligation on Losode to increase your salary. Any revision made to your salary will be notified to you in writing.

WORKING HOURS

19. Your normal hours of work will be 8 (eight) hours per day, from 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday to Friday. You are entitled to a break of one hour for lunch i.e., a 40-hour working week. In addition, you are entitled to two (2) 15-minute breaks in the morning and the afternoon. Losode reserves the right to vary the hours worked as well as your start and finish times.
20. If you work on a part-time basis, your salary, holiday, and any benefit entitlement will be on a pro-rata basis to your normal working hours.

ANNUAL LEAVE

21. Upon the completion of your probationary period, you will be entitled to 22 (twenty-two) days leave in addition to Public Holidays during the holiday year which runs from 1st February to 31st November of each year. You will be paid your normal basic remuneration during leave. If you are employed on a part-time basis, you will be entitled to a reduced holiday entitlement, pro-rata to your normal working hours.
22. If your employment commences or terminates part-way through the holiday year, your holiday entitlement during that year will be calculated on a pro-rata basis (rounded up to the nearest half day).
23. All holidays must be taken within the holiday year and may not be carried forward into the next holiday year. No payment will be made for any holiday outstanding at the end of the year. A maximum of 15 (fifteen) consecutive working days' holiday may be taken at any one time. Holidays may be taken at any time subject to your work commitments and with the prior agreement of your line manager following the agreed processes as advised by The Losode People Team.

24. Contractual holiday entitlement will not accrue during any periods of probation or sick leave, compassionate leave, maternity leave, or any other forms of leave.
25. If you have accrued holiday that you have not taken when your employment terminates, you will be entitled to accrued holiday pay or you will be required to reimburse Losode (on the same basis) if you have taken holiday above your accrued entitlement at the date of termination.

SICKNESS AND INJURY

26. Terms and conditions relating to incapacity for work due to sickness and injury, and Losode's sick pay policy, are set out in the Employee Handbook. Losode reserves the right to withdraw or amend its sick pay policy at any time.

NOTICE PERIOD AND TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

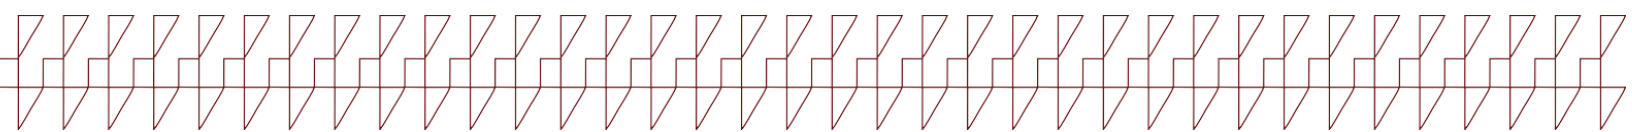

27. If your employment continues after the end of your probationary period, either party may terminate this Contract by giving the other one (1) month's written notice. Both parties can come to a mutual agreement on an earlier leaving date prior to the end of the one month.
28. If your employment is terminated because of gross misconduct, no notice will be given, and you will only be paid for the days you have worked in the month of your termination.
29. During your notice period Losode may, at its discretion, require you to take all or part of any of your outstanding leave entitlement, or not permit you to take any leave.

COMPANY LAPTOP

30. Where Losode purchases a laptop on your behalf, 15% of the laptop's cost will be deducted from your monthly salary until the full amount is repaid. No interest will be applied to these deductions, which will be itemised on your monthly payslip. Ownership of the laptop will transfer to you upon the successful completion of your employment with Losode.
31. If your employment ends—whether through resignation or termination—before the full repayment of the laptop cost, Losode reserves the right to deduct any outstanding balance from your final salary. Further details regarding the use and care of company laptops are outlined in the Losode Laptop Policy, which will be provided to you separately.
32. In the event of damage due to negligence or misuse, you will be responsible for covering the full cost of repairs. For standard damages attributed to wear and tear, Losode will bear 50% of the repair costs. You are expected to ensure that the laptop remains secure and in good condition at all times.

CONFIDENTIALITY

33. During your employment you may receive confidential information relating to Losode as well as Losode partners, employees, clients, and suppliers or prospective partners, employees, clients, or suppliers. You will not at any time, whether during or following the termination of your employment, other than in the proper fulfillment of your duties under this Contract, use any confidential information to benefit yourself, you will not reveal it to anyone else and you will do everything you can to prevent anyone else publishing or disclosing it. Confidential information includes without limitation, details of Losode's business, business model, intellectual property, code, sales, forecasts, tools, processes, data, and systems, as well as those of their clients and suppliers and personal information about their partners, employees, clients, and suppliers.

34. Where it is necessary to discuss Losode's affairs outside the office with partners, other members of staff, professional advisers, and other authorised agents, care must be taken to ensure that no information is given to a person not entitled to receive it. In all other circumstances, discussion of Losode's affairs outside the office is strictly forbidden without permission from your line management Executive.
35. Care must be taken to ensure that Losode data and files are securely stored on Losode shared drives. Where files must be removed from the shared drives, they must always, be kept in a secure place and must be destroyed once your employment is terminated or you have resigned your employment with Losode after ensuring that all material have been safely stored on Losode shared drives.
36. You are required to comply with Losode's policies, which are set out in the Employee Handbook. Breach of Losode's policies will be taken extremely seriously by Losode, and will be subject to investigation, resulting in action being taken under Losode's disciplinary procedure, up to and including dismissal.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

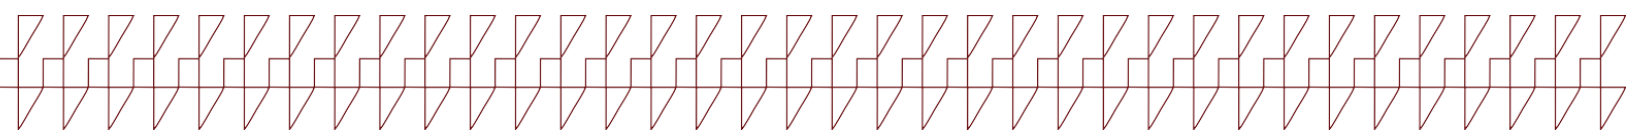

37. For the protection of the legitimate interests of Losode, you shall not for six months after the termination of your employment (for whatever reason) either directly or indirectly and whether on your behalf or on behalf of any business, person, partnership, limited liability partnership, firm, company, or other body which is wholly or partly in competition with the business of Losode. This means;
- canvass, solicit, or attempt to entice away or accept the custom or business of any user or supplier of Losode (being any person, brand or legal entity, or other body for whom Losode has provided services) with whom you had material business dealings on behalf of Losode within the last twelve months of your employment.
 - canvass, solicit or approach or cause to be canvassed, solicited, or approached any person, brand or legal entity, or other body for whom Losode has provided services) with whom or which you were in active discussions on behalf of Losode or where you had a material involvement in such discussions, in either case within the last twelve months of your employment.
 - solicit or entice away or engage any employee of Losode or offer or cause to be offered any employment or engagement to any employee of Losode, and with whom you had material contact at any time during the last twelve months of your employment (whether such person would thereby breach his or her employment or appointment terms).
38. You shall not, at any time after the termination of your employment (for whatever reason) represent yourself to be employed by, or a representative of, or associated in any way with, Losode.

DISCIPLINARY, GRIEVANCE AND APPEALS PROCEDURES

39. Losode's disciplinary, grievance, and appeals procedures are set out in the Employee Handbook. Neither they nor this clause 33, are contractual and Losode reserves the right to amend them at any time.
40. An appeal against a disciplinary decision should initially be made, in writing, to the Losode People Team within 5 (five) working days of being informed in writing of the disciplinary decision.
41. If you have any grievance relating to your employment you should discuss this verbally, in the first instance, with your line manager. In circumstances where this is not possible, or you are not satisfied with the outcome of the discussion, you should write to the Losode People Team setting out your grievance and the basis for it.

COMPLIANCE WITH LOSODE POLICIES

42. Losode's policies are set out in the Employee Handbook. You are required to comply with these policies at all times. Breach of Losode's policies and procedures will be taken extremely seriously by Losode and will,

subject to investigation, result in action being taken under Losode's disciplinary procedure up to and including dismissal.

43. You are required to conduct your employment duties with integrity, and by Losode's procedures and any codes issued by professional bodies applicable to your activities. You are also required to take the steps necessary to maintain your professional qualifications. You must render a just and faithful account of all dealings and transactions to the business of Losode.

TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

44. Employee development represents a significant financial and time investment by Losode. The following therefore applies to ensure Losode benefits from this investment:

- If you decide to leave Losode within twelve (12) months of sitting any examinations/assessments or training, and/or if at the time you are due to leave during the last twelve months, Losode has paid for you to study for examinations/assessments or training you have not yet sat or undertaken, you will be required to reimburse Losode the full cost of all the financial support it incurred to such examinations/assessments, irrespective of when any payments to this were made.

VARIATION

45. Losode reserves the right to make reasonable changes to these terms and conditions, including to your job function, and any terms, policies, or procedures set out in the Employee Handbook. In respect of changes to any contractual terms relating to your employment, you will be given not less than one month's notice of any changes and will be deemed to have accepted them unless you notify Losode in writing to the contrary. Losode is not required to give notice in respect of any changes to non-contractual terms, policies, or procedures relating to your employment.

DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY

46. Losode's Data Protection Policy is set out in the Employment Handbook. You are required to comply with this policy at all times. Breach of Losode's policies will be taken extremely seriously by Losode and will, subject to investigation, result in action being taken under Losode's disciplinary procedure, up to and including dismissal.
